

Code of Conduct

Inclusivity & Respect

- All women and femme riders are welcome, regardless of experience or bike type
 - Be kind, respectful, and supportive to everyone
 - Use inclusive language and respect names
 - No gatekeeping, elitism, harassment, or discrimination

Safety First

- Ride your own ride — no pressure to keep up
- Follow traffic laws and ride predictably
- Listen to ride briefings and respect ride leaders/sweeps
- Communicate if you need to slow down, stop, or leave a ride
- Helmets, gloves, and eye protection are required
- Long pants, long sleeves, and above ankle boots encouraged

Unsafe riding may result in being asked to leave a ride.

Consent & Boundaries

- Ask before physical contact (including hugs)
- Do not touch another rider's bike or gear without permission
- Respect personal space and comfort levels

Unwanted advances or comments are not tolerated.

Community Behavior (Online & In-Person)

- Be respectful in all group spaces (rides, meetups, Facebook, Instagram, group chats)
 - No bullying, gossip, or public call-outs
 - Address conflicts privately or with organizer support

Photos & Social Media

- Ask permission before posting identifiable photos or videos of others
- Respect requests not to be tagged or shared
- Keep private group conversations private

Accountability

If behavior goes against this Code of Conduct, organizers may step in to protect the safety and comfort of the group. This may include a warning or removal from events or the group.

By participating in group rides, events, or online spaces, you agree to uphold this Code of Conduct.

Ride your ride. Support each other. Build community.
